

Buzz the Fuzz

Biff Rose

Once there was a fellow and his name was Buzz
He was just a rookie cop just a baby Fuzz He patrolled the Sunset Strip in the land of the free and the home of the hip He protected you and me until he met a girl called Alice D

Alice was the girl that all the hippies dread
And they called her Sweet Alice the Head Alice it was plain to see was full of pot and STD She'd attract a great big crowd because her inner peace was much too loud

Good Buzz did the thing that good Fuzz must Shoved his gun in Alice's chest and said "This is a bust" Shone the flashlight in her eyes she began to hypnotize Buzz said "What a wild sensation this must be hallu-hallu-cina-cina-tion-tion-tion"

Love is so sensational when you fall in love with eyes dilational Buzz said "Alice, you I like come take ride on my fuzzy bike Soon it will getting dark and we can watch the stars from Griffith Park"

So they both went out and dug astrology-gyyyy Through their mutual hallucinology-yyyyy
Now they're taking pills and shots

Buzz is not afraid of Watts Buzz and Alice D have shown the way of where the fuzz might be some day Buzz is still a cop of course he's the pusher on the force He's protecting you and me from evil women like poor Alice D
