

Baby Ride Easy (with June Carter Cash)

Johnny Cash

Johnny Cash: If I drove a truck

June Carter: And I were a waitress

Johnny: And I ordered coffee

June: And I poured you someBoth: Then you'd stop by on your way sometimes later

June: And if we arm-wrestled, I'd see that you wonBoth: Ieee my baby, ride easy, ride high in the saddle all day

June: If your loving is good

Johnny: And your cooking ain't greasy

Both: We'll chuck the chuck wagon and we'll ride awayJune: If I were a winsome pale senorita

Johnny: And I a bull-fighter, way down in the sand

Both: While the band kept on playing that Old Casa Dora

Johnny: Would you throw me a flower

June: Would you take my hand?Both: Ieee my baby, ride easy, ride high in the saddle all day

June: If your loving is good

Johnny: And your cooking ain't greasy

Both: We'll chuck the chuck wagon and we'll ride awayJohnny: If I ran the country

June: I'd be your first lady and fix up the White House while you were away

Both: Waiting while you're passing time with world leaders

Both: Left alone together, alone we might layBoth: Ieee my baby, ride easy, ride high in the saddle all day

June: If your loving is good

Johnny: And your cooking ain't greasy

Both: We'll chuck the chuck wagon and we'll ride awayJune: If your loving is good

Johnny: And your cooking ain't greasy

Both: We'll chuck the chuck wagon and we'll ride away

Both: We'll chuck the chuck wagon and we'll ride away
