

Into Your Hands

Diamond Rio

You know me, Lord
Better than I know myself
You let me fall
And You knew it was all for the best You picked me up
Somehow I landed on higher ground
Kicking and screaming
And fighting you, I was so proud Time and again
I've been hanging on tight
Losing my grip on life
I thought was mine Into your hands I'm gonna let it all go
A part of this man is longing for you
'Cause You know what I need
Where I stand, what I'll be, who I am
I give it all into Your hands I used to pray but You know
That I'd never listen
Always expecting that
I'd get my way in the end All of this time
You were there patiently waiting
Loving me faithfully
Laying Your grace over me Lord, You're all
I could possibly need
I know that You're living in me
Setting me free Into your hands I'm gonna let it all go
A part of this man is longing for You
'Cause You know what I feel
Where I stand, where I'll be, who I am
I give it all into Your hands I will follow
Where You lead me
Lead me where You will For all that I am is longing for You
'Cause you know what I need
Where I stand, when I'm strong, when I'm weak
All my hopes all my dreams
I give it all into Your hands, into Your hands
