

Cornerstone Away

Waken Eyes

Cornerstone Away
A long time ago, In a place so far and wide My love, my fear, keeps wondering within Visions of hate echo deep through my mind A long time ago, In a place so close and still your love, your fear, your compassion lives so free Visions of love echo deep through my soul
Miles and miles away
Life in search of a brand new day
This feeling, this fight, carries on Visions of love echo deep through my soul
Visions of hate echo deep through your mind
Visions of love echo deep, deep through your mind
Passing through this mystery
Stream of life
Letting go...
Coaxing voices
Running aimlessly
In search for the past
seeking the absolute yearning for the truth
Visions of love echo deep my soul
Visions of hate echo deep through your mind
Visions of love echo deep through your mind Passing thoughts of misery stream of life set me free close your eyes and don't be seen Come home with me
Running aimlessly
seeking the absolute
yearning for the truth
