Doctor Doctor

Judy Mooch

You turn me off,
My hands are still slipping, and you're clothes they are still ripping
I knew you would,
Pack your stuff and leave me, because you said that love was destinyBefore you go, remember us, remember what we hadDoctor Doctor, can you help?
I'm having trouble explaining my love
Im trying to explain my love
Doctor Doctor, can you help?
I'm having trouble explaining my love
Im trying to explain my loveIm afraid of you,
But i shouldn't and you couldn't, even if you wanted to
My hands feel naked,
And i'm shaking, and i'm cold, and our love's about to foldBefore you leave, remember me, remember what i saidDoctor Doctor, can you help?
I'm having trouble explaining my love
Im trying to explain my love
Doctor Doctor, can you help?
I'm having trouble explaining my love
Im trying to explain my loveBut i shouldn't and you couldn't, even if you wanted to
But i shouldn't and you couldn't, even if you wanted to
But i shouldn't and you couldn't, even if you wanted to
But i shouldn't and you couldn't, even if you wanted toDoctor Doctor, can you help?
I'm having trouble explaining my love
Im trying to explain my love
Doctor Doctor, can you help?
I'm having trouble explaining my love
Im trying to explain my loveDoctor Doctor,
Doctor Doctor,
Doctor Doctor,
Doctor Doctor...
