

You Treat Me Fair

Nicholas Megalis

I build a castle
You're floodin' my moat
Are you waiting for Israel
Under the stars.

In this box is the key to your kingdom,
With girls in wagons and boys with guitars.

I might sound like I ain't even listenin',
I might sound like I don't even care.
What's the difference between you and all of them?
The difference is that you treat me fair.

(Repeat 3x)

Ooooooooooh Ooooooooooh

Amplified windows and microphone trees,
You'll do what you want while I do what I please.
Watching worries drip down to our knees,
Getting stung by the musical bees.

This might sound like the end of a nightmare,
This might smell like the hat on your hair.
What's the difference between you and all of them?
Well, quite frankly I don't really ca?(cuts off)
