

This Life Is Killing Me

Thomas David Gibson

Oh Lord!what have I done?
Sold my farther's wings
Flew too close to the sun.
Crashed down
As low as you go
Soiled and shamed by the side of the road.
Oh Lord! Look at me now
Shame to the world
Like a dog in the pounds.
I'm beat straight into the ground
Begging for bones with my tail hanging down.
Cuz I may be blind but I see
This life is killing me.

Oh Lord!what do you do?
Faith falls away and your lies become true.
Cuz I know nor me and nor you
Still the devil will take what the devil is due.
I may be blind but I see
This life is killing me
Yeah you know I may be blind but I see
This life is killing me

Oh Lord oh Lord oh Lord
What have I done?
Fell from the sky when I flew towards the sun.
Crashed down as low as you go
To dragging my heart by the side of the road
I may be blind but I see
This life is killing me
This life is killing me
This life is killing me
