God Is My Home

Living Sacrifice

Abandoned, left for dead
Kept outside, ostracized
Unwanted in your eyes
Cut me off, thrown asideIs this why I was born?
Is this what I come from?
This world has been lost long ago
God is my homeEstranged bastard I am
Never had the reasons why
God has taken me in
Healed my wounds, loved me in my sinIs this why I was born?
Is this what I come from?
This world has been lost long ago
God is my home
