The Devil Has Work for Idle Hands

Psycotic Pineapple

I know you've been cheating.
And it's time to quit.
I had a talk with the angels
while the bottom is thick.
You don't know, you intrude you're looking around, there's nothin' to do
but as soon as I have other plans,
the devil has work for idle hands!

I look through your window and I stood at the door.
But what you were saying got me begin for more.
You don't want to lose any action cause you're gonna cause a bad reaction.
The things I do I might not understand.
The devil has work for idle hands!

Look over your shoulder
if you're really concerned.
My temperature's rising
and you might get burned!
Nevermind. Go right ahead.
Do what you're doing.
You might understand.
But as soon as I have other plans,
the devil has work for idle hands!

The devil has work for idle hands!
