

Obedear

Purity Ring

I came down over the sleeping mountains where our white tones into weeping shelter
Tear our skin up from the bottom
Leaves our ankles bear
Don't just wander back and forth and leave it Build it into pinnacles and shrines of some Ghastly predicament in mind
You'll find
Leaves us plastered to a bed of hairs
We'll be all coiled up near the bottom
With my chest unburied
Obedear the sky is low
Gather up it's harm in lies with grateful lies
Obedear the sky is low
Gather up it's harm in lies with grateful lies
Obedear the sky is low, watch Fluids seem and rid their rudders so they'll grace it with their wind arrows
'Tis in the feathers that, that
They branch below, low

Oh my dreams,
Come back to me, back to me
Back to...
All my wrinkles,
Build on me, build on me
Build on...

Obedear, the sky is low
Gather up its harm and gods
With grateful arms
Obedear, the sky is low
Gather up its harm and gods
With grateful arms

Lyrics submitted by Caitlin Johnson.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>