

Unhappy

Outkast

{Drowning in the gray cell
To dwell in earthly hell
A pimp warrior fell}
One-two! Sir Lucious, left foot
In the motherfuckin' booth!
Lucious! Lucious! Sir Lucious
Left foot, has just entered
Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done
And your goose is cooked
Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done
And your goose is cooked
Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done
And your goose is cooked
Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done
And your goose is cooked
First rule in this thang never let 'em see you sweat
Never let 'em be a threat
And your feelings you must protect 'em as well as your rectum!
Must keep self out of harm out of danger's way
Let strangers play while you graduate and move on True happiness is not acquired and you won't find it for sale
Unless you're in jail and trying to get a bail
Bondsman to go on and post that bail
You would be happy as hell! you thought you was happy
Until that court date came couldn't abort that case
Nobody to take your place family home is at stake
Too late to escape and get on the run!
Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done
And your goose is cooked
Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done
And your goose is cooked
Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done
And your goose is cooked
Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done
And your goose is cooked
Once upon a rhyme one time when I was a child
(Flip that smile upside down now!)
When I found out that Santa Claus was nothing more than Vanilli

It was silly, 'cause my mom and pop they worked for every penny!

Didn't have many but had enough to get by! enough to get fly!

Only to start the New Year off in debt

Now you forget your happiness came and went

Like mom and dad's relationship, take a trip

You got the potato chips? I'll bring the hot sauce!

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked

1979 dirty south, local lounge

(Flip that smile upside down now!)

I never thought that alcohol could ease the notion of the sadness

Now what used to be a happy home done turned into some bad shit!

Graphic, language, mild violence and the silence of the the fams!

No members to remember but I know just who I am

I've grown into a man and like my nigga said

We executed the game plan 'cause we got that hot sauce!

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked

(Flip that smile upside down now!)

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked

(Flip that smile upside down now!)

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked

Might as well have fun 'cause your happiness is done

And your goose is cooked
