

Wherever You Are

Moody Blues

These times have passed and gone
It's time that we moved on into a new tomorrow
And leave behind the hurt, the sorrow and the pain
'Cause tonight will never pass this way again
Wherever you are, wherever you go
Wherever you stand, let your shadow show
Whatever you think, whatever you do
Whatever you want, let your feelings show
These times have passed and gone
It's time that we moved on into a new tomorrow
And leave behind the hurt, the sorrow and the pain
'Cause tonight will never pass this way again
'Cause tonight will never pass this way again

Just like the winter sun
That hides behind the dawn
Just like the shifting sands
That ride upon the storm
Tonight will never pass this way again
Tonight, tonight
'Cause tonight will never pass this way again
Tonight, tonight
'Cause tonight will never pass this way again
Tonight, tonight
'Cause tonight will never pass this way again
