

Don't Breathe My Air

Kill Hannah

i want will like you today i know all my proper passionate i'll kill you myself
she on flowers ball
you recognize my charm
i'm just passionate
but i'll kill you myself
the cannons are here
don't breathe my air
don't breathe
all life has gone absurd one flower's broke
but i know that god is gone

i've taken his job
you find us we're growing old yes you're just --missing lyric-- but i know god is dead
i've stolen his house
i've claimed it myself
don't breathe my air
don't breathe my air
don't breathe
don't breathe my air
