

Only Time Will Tell

Etta James

I just needed someone
Somebody to hold
When the bottle was empty
And the nights grew coldIn my hour of darkness
In my time of need
You were my angel of mercy
And helped me to believeYou touched my soul when I was lonely
You held me up when I couldn't fly
There's no words could explain
How I feel insideAnd this I tell you in a world full of anger
In times gone strange you held me close
You held me close to you
Lay my head on your shoulderI finally let it all out
It felt good for a moment
Not living in a shadow of doubtBut everybody needs a little something
To pull them through
I gave one for the other
And God knows that the other was youNow only time will tell
Only time will tell
If our love is scratched in sand
Or if it's etched in stoneOnly time will tell
Only time will tell
If our love will stand
Or walk the road aloneMy angel of mercy
Pulled me through somehow
I just hope you know
I need you nowYou're the one
That touched my very soul
The one who held on tight
God knows you never let goNow only time will tell
Only time will tell
If our love is scratched in sand
Or if it's etched in stoneOnly time will tell
Only time will tell
If our love will stand
Or walk the road aloneOnly time will
Only time will
(Can you bring my hands to yours)
Only time will tell

(Can you teach my soul to fly)Only time will

Only time will

(Can you save me)

Only time will tellAngel of mercy

It's time we closed the door

Put out the lights

And burn the fire

Burn the fire inside

Angel of mercy
