My love is a storm
She doesnt wait for me
And now that shes gone
I fear that shell never be
Back in my arms
Oh
She held me tight
And i just might
Be losing
U-oh
When the rain comes down
The clouds will roll
Lord, and the wind will blow
You are my undertow
Caught in a rip tide
And i am currently in love with youMy love is an ocean
She glides like a seagull
She is the potion
That makes me emotional
She is a song
That the waves sing
To the shore
In the key of a gentle breeze
U-oh
You are everything
To me
And more
You are my undertow
Caught in a rip tide
And i am currently in love with you
(break)You are my undertow
Caught in a rip tide
And i am currently in love with you
O o oh
You are my undertow
Caught in a rip tide
And i am
Currently in love with you
