Danger Zone

Sinner

[Sinner, Stoner][Spoken:]

Welcome to the danger zoneRunnin' to a land so dark full of pain

I'm feeling dirty, feelin' hot again

I got the miracles in my hands

Deliver me from evilThe sorcerer is planting his seed

Growing the fools and the victims he needs

His empire's covered by a black sky

The danger zone is in his eyes[Chorus 1:]

Harder than diamonds

Face to face with his evil eyes

Harder than diamonds

I stand against his magic might[Chorus 2:]

He's evil (evil, evil, evil)

So evil (evil, evil, evil)

It's a long way through the dark

Through the danger zone

He's evil (evil, evil, evil)

So evil (evil, evil, evil)

It's a long way through the dark

Danger zoneI was the stranger he needed to kill

I was the danger, I was the thrill

Demons of fire at his command

Flashes of lightning shot from his headIt was one minute before the dawn

Just one minute and his power'd be gone

I started runnin' I felt his pain

The sun came up, I'm gettin' hot again[Chorus 1 & 2]Through the danger zone
