

Who Do You Love? (Jeremy Sylvester Bump Mix)

Kindness

So tell me how was your morning
I stayed up late when out drinking
Made a new friend with affection
He seemed upset about something
He couldn't make a connection
Despite the best of intentions
I've been looking for meaning
Something good to believe in Don't let the noise confuse you
It's just something that you're used to
You never knew any different
There's something else if you listen Who do you love? So tell me how were you feeling?
I saw you while I was dreaming
We spent some time by the ocean
Next time I look at half frozen
I saw that people were smiling
I passed them by and said nothing
I couldn't make a connection
How do you make a connection Who do you love? Don't let the noise confuse you
It's just something that you're used to
You never knew any different
There's something else if you listen (Who do you love?)
Don't let the noise confuse you
It's just the thing that you're used to
You never knew any different
There's something else if you listen
