Traveler

Screaming Trees

It's a broken morning outside
Go easy on my mind
'Cos you're this dream I'm hangin' on
And I'm tryin' to meet the dawnAnd the longest way I traveled
From the darkness to the light
Lord, it's been a million miles
In these prisons I can't abideI'm half way here, I'm half way there
I'm half way here, I'm half way there
I'm half way here, I'm half way there
All along I've been the traveler, yeahForever outta time
Forever just unwinds
I see the green beyond the blue
And I'm tryin' to make it throughAnd the longest way I traveled
From the darkness to the light
Lord, it seems a million miles
All my brothers I can't unbindI'm half way here, I'm half way there
I'm half way here, I'm half way there
I'm half way here, I'm half way there
Oh Lord, I been the traveler, yeahIt's why the world is cold
Go easy on my soul
'Cos you're this dream I'm hangin' on
And I'm tryin' to meet the dawnAnd the longest way I traveled
From the darkness to the light
Lord, it been a million miles
In these prisons I can't abideHalf way here, I'm half way there
I'm half way here, I'm half way there
I'm half way here, I'm half way there
I'm half way here, I'm half way there
I'm half way here, I'm half way there
All along I been the traveler, yeahAll along I been the traveler
All along I been the traveler
All along I been the traveler
All along I been the traveler
