

Teardrops Will Kiss The Morning Dew

Alison Krauss & Union Station

When time was young we walked the roads together

When love was sweet I meant the world to you

Now comes the sun we'll say goodbye forever

And teardrops will kiss the morning dewTake me and make me your lover one more time

Close in your arms as before

'Til o'er your shoulder the early morning shines

Then I'll leave you and grieve you no moreWhen time was young we walked the roads together

When love was sweet I meant the world to you

Now comes the sun we'll say goodbye forever

And teardrops will kiss the morning dewDaises need sunshine and roses need rain

So it was all meant to be

A wild bird needs wings, free to take to the wind

And so it was meant for you and meWhen time was young we walked the roads together

When love was sweet I meant the world to you

Now comes the sun we'll say goodbye forever

And teardrops will kiss the morning dewTeardrops will kiss the morning dew
