

What Else Can I Do

Kat Edmonson

What else can I do
but to sit and think of you and how love walked through that door and moved boldly 'cross the floor but love's not here anymore what else can I do? Oh what can I say when you decide to go away perhaps a fault was in the start perhaps we're better off apart try and tell that to my heart what else can I do? Lonely waiting, tolerating the minutes you're not with me all I can do it seems is keep my daily scheme to dream you in my dream Where do I go where there's no one that I know to smile and ask me how we've been so then I remember when and start missing you again
what else can I do
I'm so in love with you Lonely waiting, tolerating
the minutes you're not with me
to dream you in my dream what treatment to try when all I want to do is cry would it really do much harm to seek out another's arms and start conjuring your charms
what else can I do
I'm so in love with you What else can I do?
What else can I do?
What else can I do?
For I am so in love with you I'm so in love I'm so in love
