

Sugar

Come And Go

I made my way through the balls and the haystack
Feel like a needle and walk right through the door
I'm lighting fires like I'm made out of Monday
Instead of sugar I turn towards you, yeah

Its all right, you shouldn't be scared, yeah
It's all right, your heart's a little lonely
It's all right
You better believe that I'm ready to taste that
You better believe that I'm ready to taste that
Sugar

Lying back here, I'm already wasted
I've tasted candy, I think that I want some more
Nine blocks, I hear the train at the station
My dirty mind wants you on the floor, yeah

Its all right, you shouldn't be scared, yeah
It's all right, your heart's a little lonely
It's all right
You better believe that I'm ready to taste that
You better believe that I'm ready to taste that
Sugar

Repeat to Fade Out
