First Lullaby

Sandra

Evening sun is going down
Out on the ocean
Wind is blowin round and round
And this is your home
It's our home nowHere's the place we go to sleep
And here is your garden
I've got one arm for each of you
One lullaby for twoNow it's time to close our eyes
Dream and have no fear
The monster's gone he's on the run
And your mom is here
It's your lullabyThere will be joy and there'll be pain
You will find out it's just the same
This is your life that now begins
Here you belong my pair of twins
