On Broadway

Common Rider

Everybody's going downtown tonight to take a big bath in the sugary light but I don't give a damn about the main attraction
'cause I walk to slow for that modern actionWe're gonna go Where we belong, be our own hero We will write our own game
We will go our own wayEverybody's going to the track tonight to bet on the one with the mechanical eye but I don't give a damn about a virtual horse
'cause it's got no rider and no remorseEverybody's living in a mercury world that breaks just like string of pearls but I don't give a damn about a media jones
'cause I got deep roots in a field of my own

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/