Carcinogen Crush

Afi

Speechless
I read the words between your lines
In isolation
Silence separates
I wept as I heard you speak
Words I know you didn?t write
But I believe you, believe them
'Cause you spoke them again in my dreams last night
I swear to you I?m not the one
I swear so I?ll become
(What you were over)
Your only, dream-like
Take a bow
You?ve performed exquisitely
And though the millions scream
I know you?ll see
Each subtlety?s understood by me
I, I would be as devout
As the high school sweetheart
That I never had, I s-s-swear
I swear to you I?m not the one

I swear so I?ll become
(What you were over)
Your only, dream-like
So if you are confined to me
I swear that you will be
(What you were over)
So lonely, dream-like
Your airs of grace, your airs of grace will fill me
Your airs of grace, your airs of grace will fill me
Your airs of grace, your airs of grace will fill me
Your airs of grace, your airs of grace just kill me
Oh!
I swear to you, I?m not the one
I swear so I?ll become your only
So if you are confined to me
I swear you will be
(What you were over)

So lonely, dream-like
Dream-like
Dream-like
