Two Steps Away

Clawfinger

I'm two steps away from stepping over the edge
And getting lost in the great unknown
Because one small step in the wrong direction
Is enough to shake the cornerstoneWhere ever I'm thrown, no matter where I end up
It can't be any worse than here
If I'm sincere with myself then tell me
What else is there really left for me to fear?I'm two steps away from just killing myself
Because I'm sick and tired of being the prey
But when I'm dead everything that I've said
Will lose it's meaning and fade to grayI'm not ready for that I'd rather counterattack
Instead of leaving my own song unsung
Because I'm too young to die
And I can never justify not breathing air into my lungesI'll take one more step until somebody stops me
I'll take one more step until somebody stops me
I'll take one more step until somebody stops me
I'll take one more step until somebody stops meI'm two steps away from making somebody pay
For every time that I've been deceived
How can I believe a single word you say
When I know you've got a card up your sleeveI might be naive but I'm still forced to believe
That all the best in life is yet to come
That's why I refuse to lose my faith in myself
Even after all the wrong that you've doneI'll take one more step until somebody stops me
I'll take one more step until somebody stops me
I'll take one more step until somebody stops me
I'll take one more step until somebody stops me
