

Angel Eyes (Mark Picchiotti Glaucoma Dub)

Tamara Walker

Angel eyes..see the glory.
Angel eyes..know the story.
They see the hearts that break.
They see the love you make.
The story never ends.
Every heart thats been broken
by just a word thats been spoken.
Heaven keeps the score...
there's always something more,
if only you believe.
Every heart wants redemption
and deep inside there's a connection
thats waiting for the touch
it doesn't take too much
to set your spirit free.
Angel eyes see the morrow.
Angel eyes won't let sorrow
live inside your heart.
You've got a brand new start
if only you believe.
Every heart wants redemption
and deep inside there's a connection
that's waiting for the touch.
It doesn't take too much
to set your spirit free.
Angel eyes want to love you
and angels fly high above you.
The promise never ends.
The rainbow never bends,
if only you believe.
The promise never ends.
The rainbow never bends,
if only you believe.
