Another Sleep Song

Lee Dewyze

Maybe I'm just tired
I'm never getting any sleep
Maybe I'm just tired
All the secrets that I have to keep
And if I stay until the break of day
Chances are you won't remember my name
And when the morning comes
I'll be on my way
One more night of my town
And I swear I put the bottle down
Goes you follow but I need you, see
If I stay until the break of day

Chances are you won't remember my name
And when the morning comes
I'll be on my way
And if I stay until the break of day
Chances are you won't remember my name
And when the morning comes
I'll be on my way
And if I stay until the break of day
Chances are you won't remember my name
And when the morning comes,
And when the morning comes,
And when the morning comes,
I'll be on my way
