

Dead On the Inside

Freakhouse

A dark place deep inside of me
Chemicals out of synchronicity
Watching the colors that you cannot see
Watch them bleedBut now Im pouring down
These thoughts will not leave meThe things we used to hide
Have torn apart our lives
You cant control me cause Im dead on the insideToo much excess corrupting me
Your tired excuses will bury me
Your final wish to set me free, lets me breatheOur lives, your liesI looked to you for strength
And I felt alive
But when you lost your faith
And your reason to live
