

Land Of Make Believe

From Ashes to New

You stand there all alone and try to think of what I said
But this unfamiliar tongue just keeps on ringing in your head
Everything you've known is what I'm bringing to an end
The situation that you're in is you're preaching it instead
It's what it is, enough of this, the shit you talk is nothing
Keep on breaking what I love in this, and that is why it's coming
Is I'm jumping and confronting and you plan to stop with none of this Now you see how fun it is to believe you're buried under it You think you're special, you think I have to follow you
Just scratching, guessing I'm not the person you assumed
You think you're special, think I have to follow you
Now what you gonna do when I break the split you wanna do You underestimated me
I'll be the one to haunt you in your dreams
And when the ashes rest you'll see
I'll have torn you from your land of make believe I wish you had the courage and the heart to use your brain
'Cause you're wicked on the surface, and you're partially insane
You think it serves no purpose and it's unfairly in vain
Your slippers ain't working and your hopes are far away
Now you're stuck here out of luck
You stand there thinking how the fuck
It's loud enough to sound you're nuts
Your house is spinning round the block
Now before this happened
I'm to show you don't you fuck the gun
And now you spun around because
You may be what the coward was You think you're special, think I have to follow you
Just scratching, guessing I'm not the person you assumed
You think you're special, think I have to follow you
Now what you gonna do when I break the split you wanna do You underestimated me
I'll be the one to haunt you in your dreams
And when the ashes rest you'll see
I'll have torn you from your land of make believe Don't fall asleep
Cause you can't run from me Don't fall asleep
Cause you can't run from me (You can't run from me)
I'm coming for you
I'm coming for you
Don't fall asleep
Love is not meant for me (It's not meant for me)
I'm coming for you

Yeah, I'm coming for you You think you're special, think I have to follow you
Now what you gonna do when I break the split you wanna do You underestimated me
I'll be the one to haunt you in your dreams
And when the ashes rest you'll see
I'll have torn you from your land of make believe Don't fall asleep
Cause you can't run from me (You can't run from me)
I'm coming for you
Yeah, I'm coming for you
