

The Lost Song, Pt. 1

Anathema

tonight, I'm free, so free for the first time
I've seen
new life
new life
start to breathe
and you came to me
in some way
and my life
will never be the same (one day you'll feel me a whisper upon the breeze) and that night
as I dreamed
and I slipped away
to another place
where you spoke to me
of this day
and you came to me
will never be the same
and you came to me
and my life
is like a hurricane
and you came to me
and my life
will never be the same
for you're mine
and I'm yours
for life
for you're mine
and I'm yours
for life
for life
the fear is just an illusion
