Beating On Deaths Door

Lamb of God

She's a slack one, born of greed
Speaking endless words, long and empty
A beggar who still wants to choose
A dethroned queen still demands her dueIf you want something for nothing
You take what you get
A virgin  in a dirty wedding dressScream for salvation, beating on death's door
But just be careful what you wish forThere's a blood stain on the ceiling
But you're the only duck in the shooting gallery
Trying to look out a bricked-in window
Your destiny lies in the alley belowTrying to see yourself in a shattered mirror
When all else fails, she holds you with broken arms
There's poison in her veins but the  comes for free
A quick fix for all that you think that you needScream for salvation, beating on death's door
But just be careful what you wish for
The 'Patron Saint Of Fools' answers all your requests
She's all yours now, so deal with itShe's all yours now, she's all yours, all yours
All yours now, she's all yours, all yours
All yours now, she's all yours, all yours
All yours now, she's all yours, all yours
She's all yours now, she's all yours
You whore, deal with itAll yours now, she's all yours, all yours
All yours now, she's all yours, all yours
She's all yours now, she's all yours
Deal with itThere's no shoulder left to cry wolf on You're tied in knots that can't be undone
No more warnings will fall on deaf ears
You lied too many times, now no one caresNo one cares, no one cares, liar
No one cares, no one caresAn empty promise with a heart of tin
Her crooked smile beguiles and it draws you within
The hope for something more, all that you wish for
A kick to the head and a boot to the doorChasing a dragon in a lady's clothes
A paper trail ends in choking smoke
But you know you lit the match yourself
Play the burning cards that you dealtScream for salvation, beating on death's door
But just be careful what you wish for
The 'Patron Saint Of Fools' answers all your requests
She's all yours now, so deal with itShe's all yours now, so deal with it
She's all yours now, so deal with itBroken, broken
Broken, broken

Broken, broken
