What I Already Know

Point of Grace

Life has been a teacher, an enemy and a friend
And at times I've been a sinner and a saint
I've been known to lose my temper, my patience and my pride but I've never lost the need to pray
Lord, I don't need some truth revealed to me
Or some sacred thing to hold
Well, all I really need is just a little more faith
To believe what I already know
You said You'd never leave me
You'd walk right by my side
Right now all I feel is alone
'Cause I can't see Your angels watching over me
Oh but Jesus loves me the Bible tells me so
Well, I don't need some mountain moved for me
Or some miracle to behold
All I really need is just a little more faith
To believe what I already know
I know there are much bigger problems than mine
But Lord if You get the time
I don't need the waters to part for me
Or to see those streets of gold
Well, All I really need is just a little more faith
To believe what I already know
Yeah the secret to walking down life's road
Is to believe what I already know
