

To an End

Strife

Because I stand in this defiance, I wear the mark of those Who choose to refuse self-destructive points of view
And with each day spent in my self-perseverance
My voice is strong against what's wrong
Forcing it to an end
Standing in this defiance, wearing the mark of those
We chose to refuse our system's defective views
And with each day spent in our self-perseverance
Our voices strong against what's wrong
Forcing it to an end, yeah
Yeah, forcing it to an end
Forcing it to an end
Forcing it
Forcing it
Yeah
Forcing it to an end
To an end
Forcing it to an end
To an end
Forcing it to an end
To an end
Forcing it to an end
To an end
Forcing it to an end
