Don't Tell Me You Do

Rockapella

(Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey)So you say
You've been here
You know me
You really understand
You've felt (You've felt)
The way (The way I feel)
Darlin' (Darlin')Sugar (Sugar)
Let me say (Let me, ooh)
I don't think
You even have a clue of how (Even have a clue)
You've blown my life apart
Hey (Hey)
Honey, you got no idea
(Don't tell me you do)Don't tell me that you
Cry in your sleep each night
Don't say you spend each hour
Wonderin' what wasn't right
Do you stare into the mirror
Thinkin' what is it you should change (Hey)Do you wake up every mornin'
Reachin' over to find
You ain't there (You ain't back)
And you ain't comin' back
You cannot know how this feels
Don't tell me you doAnd you thought
This phone call (whoa, whoa)
Could fix things
Could wipe away the guilt you feel (You feel)
You ask (You ask too much)
Baby, you're askin' too much (ooh, oh oh)See, when you say (You say)
Forever (Forever)
I guess the forever (Forever that you are)
That you meant must be
Much shorter than I planned, ooh (hey)
Honey, tell me where do I go from here
Don't tell meDon't tell me that you cry
In your sleep each night
Don't say you spend each hour
Wonderin' what wasn't right
Do ya stare into the mirror

Thinkin' what is it you should change? Hey, hey (Hey)Do you lose yourself
In conversation
Look in my hand
Then they're gone (You ain't back)
There ain't nobody thereWell, you can't ask me to say
I love you (love you)
I do, and that won't change (oh, oh, oh)
Just please don't ask me to say
Everything's okay (Don't ask, baby, don't)
Cos it ain't, mm hm (You got, no baby)
No, it ain't (You got, you got it, no, you got, you gotta, ooh)
Whoa, yayDon't tell me that you
Cry in your sleep each night
Don't say you spend each hour
Wonderin' what wasn't right
Do you find yourself alone
In all the places we used to share
(Places that we both shared)
Hey, heyDo you wake up every mornin'
Reachin' over to find
You ain't there (You ain't back)
And you ain't comin' back
You cannot know how this feels
Don't tell me you do
Don't tell me you do
Mmm
