

Inside Your Mind

Caroline's Spine

heard, seen, said and exaggerated i respond, i defend, then i no longer tolerate it i wonder how i look inside your mind tell me how i scored with your panel of judges tonight can you see me? do you hear what i say to you?
when i look inside you i see something about myself
something i never knew
and it makes me want to do it all over again... you're gonna take me on again? a pleasant surprise, indeed, i find your eyes simply amazing i pulled a leaf from a tree and you laughed just something wild your smile is so crazy... so crazy and i wonder how i look inside your mind tell me how'd i feel, was i just another good time? can you see me? do you hear what i say to you?
when i look inside you i see something about myself
something i never knew
and it makes me want to do it all over again... you gonna take me on again? can you see me?
do you hear what i say to you?
when i look inside you i see something about myself
something i never knew
and it makes me want to do it all over again you gonna take me on again? i wonder how i look inside your mind...
i wonder how i look inside your mind...
