

Happy On the Outside (Demo August 17, 2005)

Roxette

You can watch her doin' the rounds
She's there for everyone
Throwin' kisses, makin' plans
For midnight men, mornin' sons Well, did the wine make her dance?
No, she's always been the star
She's got that riddle in her smile
But a burden in her heart She's so happy on the outside
But she's cryin' on the inside
And there's nothin' I can do
To make her glad So happy on the outside
Hurtin' on the inside
And it's sad so sad
Baby, it's so sad Hey, did the wine make her dance?
No, she's always been a star
So be prepared to fall in love
Though her heart hides the scars She's so happy on the outside
Hurtin' on the inside
It's such a sad sad sight
Such a sad sad sight She's so happy on the outside
But she's cryin' on the inside
And there's nothin' I can do
To make it right She's so happy on the outside
Oh, hurtin' on the inside
It's such a sad sad sight
Such a sad sad sight
Such a sad sight
Oh such a sad sight
