Teething

Deftones

First you smile at Lord, I found you first Liquefied inside you, but it hurts if I even see you

Make you smile, I look over and cry, I get by But that's to bad you get stuck with all alone

Look at yourself you ain't no genius

You want to find, you won't find me

I'm coming home, but IFirst you raining for, it can't be seen

Liquefied him more and more, fuck you bitch

To go and I go and I and

I don't know 'cause I'm sick and this ain't fun at allBut that's too bad, you get stuck with whores

Look at yourself, you ain't no genius

You want to fly, you won't find me

I'm coming home, IBut that's too bad, you get stuck with whores

Look at yourself, you ain't no genius

You want to find, you won't find me

I'm coming home, hurtYou got hair, clothes, the fashion, the cash flow

How the fuck you gonna tell me what you don't know

You got hair, clothes, the fashion, the cash flow

How the fuck you gonna tell me what you don't know You got hair, clothes, the fashion, the cash flow

How the fuck you gonna tell me what you don't know

You got hair, clothes, the fashion, the cash flow

How the fuck you gonna tell me something Your this close to fashion the, the cash flow

How the fuck you gonna tell me what you don't know

Your this close to fashion and the cash flow

How the fuck you gonna tell me what you don't know Your this close to fashion and the cash flow

How the fuck you gonna tell me what you don't know

Your this close to fashion, the cash flow

How the fuck you gonna tell me something, tell me somethingSay your prayersBut that's too bad you get stuck with all alone

Look at yourself you ain't no genius

You want to find, you won't find me

I'm coming home, but IBut that's too bad, you get stuck with whores

Look at yourself, you ain't no genius

You want to find, you won't find me

I'm coming home, hurt[Incomprehensible]
