Hazel Eyes

Square Root Of Margaret

Cold was the night

Target's in sight

Just another have gun for hire
Then our eyes met
Thru the telescopic lens
In a split second flash of desire
The last thing i expected to see
A pair of double crosses they were staring at me

Hazel eyes
Dark eyelashes
Hazel eyes
Thunder cracks and lighting flashes
Hazel eyes
Made me see
Life flash by in the blink of an eye
I realize it's me

Feel my pulse
Feel it quicken
The time runs out i hear it ticking
The plot unwinds
I'm sick and tired of the game

Strange twist of fate
Made me hesitate
She could have blown me away
Slight change of plan
And a fast two hundred grand
In a double double cross getaway
It was love at first sight and we knew
I grabbed the moment the money and you

Hazel eyes
Dark eyelashes
Hazel eyes
Thunder cracks and lighting flashes
Hazel eyes

Made me see
Life flash by in the blink of an eye
I realize it's me
