Earth Meets Water

Rigby

Hold me tonight
What happend to me
My head in the clouds
Fallen so deep
You came in soft
No shoes on my feet
Cold and afraid
It feels like I could break down Right here on this shore
I'll go a straight

Here I stand,
Where earth meets water
The wind blows smoke,
across the land
So hear me out,
our lives get harder
It slips through our fingers,
like this fist full of sand
like a fist full of sand

Lay down tonight
The stars as our spine
Summer will fade
And it feels like I will lose you, with each of the turning tides
Till the first snow arrives

So here I stand,
Where earth meets water
The wind blows smoke,
across the land
So hear me out,
our lifes get harder
It slips through our fingers,
like this fist full of sand

Here I stand,
Where earth meets water
It slips through our fingers,

like a fist full of sand

It slips through our fingers
