Hello my honey, my beautiful friend
It's hard to imagine it's come to an end
But the more I remember the more I forget
Living in fear of what hasn't come yetOh the angels are calling they've shot to the heart
Ominous frictions will tear us apart
And the villains of sorrow will always remain
Follow the future in silence againNo tears to cry all that hurt
Or leave tonight all that hurtOh the angels are calling they've shot to the heart
Ominous frictions will tear us apart
And the villains of sorrow will always remain
Follow the future in silence againNo tears to cry all that hurt
Or leave tonight before I turn
My babe, your bleed fills my heart
Or leave tonight all my hurt
