Freak

Kelly Rowland

YeahFeel real goodMirrors on the ceiling
Cameras on the corners of my bed
I barely know you but I'm feeling
Like you really did something to my head (yeah)It's close to midnight
And I just wanna be up with you here (yeah, right on)
And I'll be alright
As long as I feel your body right thereIt seems so crystal clear, I know thatEverybody's Somebody's
Freak(Say it again, say it again)Everybody's
Somebody's (yeah)
FreakThe question is, whose are you (Right on)
Can I be your your your your your (freak)
Can I be your your your your your (freak)Don't need no television
I'll just watch your body going down (yeah)
I'll touch you with precision
Go crazy when you make those sounds
Feels like the best dream
But this time baby you can be the star
A freaky sex dream
Read your lines, make sure you play your parts
And when you get next to me, turn the lights offEverybody's Somebody's
Freak(Say it again, say it again)Everybody's
Somebody's (yeah)
Freak, freak, freakThe question is, whose are you (Right on)
Can I be your your your (Right on)
Your freak
Can I be your your your your your (freak)
Can I be your your your your your (freak)
Can I be your your your your your (freak)The vases, chandeliers
Glass of wine, can of beer
Alcohol can interfere
Here's the wheel can you steer
Don't need to get senalier
You perform, I will cheer
You can scream, no one hears
Feature face, no one cares
The floor appears to be yours
Go ahead, pop the champagne

It's like were on a world tour
The sex will be your campaign 'causeEverybody's (yeah)
Somebody's (what)
Freak (right on)(Say it again, say it again)(turns the light on)Everybody's
Somebody's (yeah)
Freak, freak freakThe question is, whose are you (yeah hands in the air now)
Can I be your your your your
Your freak (hands in the air now)
(Hands in the air now) can I be your your your
Your Freak (right on)
Can I be your your your your
Your freak
Can I be your your your your
Your freakI think that's enough (yeah)
Turn the lights on
