(Stranded On) The Wrong Beach

Noel Gallagher

Falling, I'll see you on the way down.
I'll meet you on the rebound.
or somewhere in between.
Call in, out across the airwaves
faces that you can't save
are calling out for meand hold me all night,
or say "so long, baby, bye bye"
pull me one for the road.
It's a long journey baby,
and where is gonna take me?
Just depends on the weight of my load.
Depends on the weight of my load.Sailor, i'll see you on the next round.
'Cuz everybody is been and gone
there's no-one here but meand hold me all night,
or say "so long, baby, bye bye"
pull me one for the road.
It's a long journey baby,
and where is gonna take me?
Just depends on the weight of my load.
Depends on the weight of my load.(Solo)And hold me all night,
or say "so long, baby, bye bye"
pull me one for the road.
It's a long journey baby,
and where is gonna take me?
Just depends on the weight of my load.
Depends on the weight of my load.
Depends on the weight of my load.
Depends on the weight of my load.
Depends on the weight of my load.Drawling, sinking on the quicksand
stranded on the wrong beach
come and rescue me.
