Star Of The Show

The Cool Notes

I lost my way home, looking at myself
Searching for nothing
I knew all along where I belongEveryday, I stand in the light
I can take the stage but You are the one
You give me the loveYou know what You are You're the star of the show 'cuz you are the one
I cannot breathe in, without a reason
You're the star, You're the star, You're the starI'm coming home now, closer to you
You show me the way, You turn me into Something that's newI thought that I knew You
But I was only pushing You away
Now I can hear you
I'll listen to every word you say
