We're Here To Tell You

Duncan Sheik

Indeed there's such a thing as ghosts
And more to cause you fear
You never know where or when
But surely they'll appear
Quiet men turn into wolves
During certain moons
And sirens sing their siren songs
Sweet and deadly tunes
We are here to tell you
All of this is real
If you are terrified today
It's how you're supposed to feel for real
We are here to tell you
Ghosts are here for good
If this doesn't terrify you
It should, it should

Don't you know the feeling
When blood has left your veins
And horsemen of apocalypse
Ride through poison rains
The devil's in the details
And in the grand design
And once he gets your number
He calls you all the time
We are here to tell you
That all of this is real
And if you're terrified today
It's how you're supposed to feel for real
We are here to tell you
Ghosts are here for good
If this doesn't terrify you
It should, it should
