Now Is the Time

Yngwie Malmsteen

Hold on tight in the heat of the night
Baby, there can be no escape
Feelings right, getting hard to fight
Baby just how much can I takeTell me that it's real, everything you feel
What am I supposed to do
Look into my eyes, touch me deep inside
Let me feel your love cut throughOh, now is the time
Feeling your heart so close to mine
Oh, I want your touch, I need you so much
Now is the time for our love, time for our loveDrowning in the flames, in the sea of desire
Angel with the devil's eyes
Turns up the heat and we fall in the fire
Can't you feel the temperature riseTell me that it's true, you can feel it too
Let me be your fantasy
Baby hold me tight, say that it's alright
You know you can count on meOh, now is the time
Feeling your heart so close to mine
Oh, I want your touch
Now is the time for our loveWhen the fire starts I can feel you burning tonight
With an open heart baby won't you let me inside
Let me inside girlOh, now is the time
Feeling your heart so close to mine
Oh, I want your touch, I need you so much
Now is the time for our loveNow is the time
Feeling your heart so close to mine
Oh, I want your touch, I need you so much
Now is the time for our loveOh, now is the time
Feeling your heart so close to mine
Oh, I want your touch, I need you so much
