

Something To Prove

Slapshot

Intro: Yeah, I'd just wanted to how Youth of Today ripped Jack of and why he hates Bold so much. And my number in the US is [distorted phone-number] and I'm just wondering why you're so negative and violent towards, you know, people that don't have the same believes as you. If you could answer my questions I'd be great. You think you've got the baddest scene

But you don't know what the baddest means

So don't tell stories that aren't true

'Cause when we come around you'll have something to prove Something to prove

Something to prove

Something to prove

Something to prove

Something to prove! You keep on bragging about your so-called crew

But we don't see anything you do

You tell old tales that never were

Inventing a scene you'll never have Something to prove

Something to prove

Something to prove

Something to prove

Something to prove! Something to prove

Something to prove

Something to prove

Something to prove

Something to prove!
