

Andalucia

Alberto de Almar

Andalucia when can I see you
When it is snowing out again
 Farmer john wants you
Louder and softer closer and dearer
 Then again
Needing you taking you keeping you leaving you
 In a year and a day to be sure
 That your face doesn't alter
Your words never falter -- I love you I'll be here waiting later and later
 Hoping the night will go away
 Andalucia castles and christians
 Andalucia come to stay
You were lost, once before, on a day much like this
 When you'd made up your mind not to come
 And I couldn't persuade you
 Or wait till tomorrow -- or pass the time
