

Contradictions (Hay Tea Bootleg)

Bang Gang

All my yesterdays have flown away
And it's better now
It's better now All my dreams have gone away
And I don't know how
Oh, I don't know how Lately in my dreams
Maybe all's not really what it seems
Contradictions
Lately in my dreams
I know, wonder what it means
Contradictions Contradictions
All my yesterdays make sense somehow
Cause they've flown away
It's another day
All my dreams have gone away
Where they went I don't know
It's just so
Lately it's so strange
All has fallen off and gone away
Contradictions
Wonder what it means
It's so...
That's all that it seems Contradictions
While I'm having fun
I still wonder
When will it be done
Contradictions
It's all fine, and why?
Don't know
Wondering and why... Contradictions
