Hideaway

Grinspoon

So you have made some mistakes,
You don't need beating down now you've found
That you're alone in a crowd
And back when we were younger
We felt so old and free ,Meant to be
I'd never thought i'd want to see
Hey, Lets find a place to go , Where no one knows our name
Hey, Lets find a place to hide , A place to hidaway
Maybe we'll make it someday
Maybe we'll feel alive, let the stars in the sky
Find another place to hide
And when they talk , dont listen
Cause we're not really here

The machines dissapear
I'd never thought i'd see so clear
Hey, Lets find a place to go , Where no one knows our name
Hey, Lets find a place to hide , A place to hidaway
I gave it all just to get you back,
I wanna show you the place im at
And when we finally make it ,
We'll feel so bald , alive
Like the stars in the sky , I never thought i'd be this high
Hey, Lets find a place to hide , A place to hidaway x2
