Get to Know You

Minguz

(V1)
Coffee with creme coming up right away
You look, I look we smile, we wave
You go, I dream about kissing one day
Oh well, I decide , maybe tomorrow
When he comes again I finally get to say
What I've been wanting to say
(CHORUS)
I wanna get to know you
How can I get to know?
I wanna get to know you
Know you better
(x2)
{V2}
Hanging with my girls
Nightime's another world
High heel, blue jeans
He's looking at me
He takes my hand,'Would you like to dance?'
I say,'Okay.'
And then he starts to say to me the words I've waited to hear
The phrase that's no longer a dream
(CHORUS)
(BRIDGE)
(You are) the meaning of everything beautiful
I can't wait to breathe your air
(That smile)That smile what a pleasure for me just to look at you
I can't wait to do whatever
(CHORUS)
